

FBCR AWANA CLUBS THEME NIGHTS FOR 2019-2020

THEME Nights:

Testimony Night/Show & Tell—Sunday, October 27th

Have leaders and clubbers share brief testimonies of faith and praise. Clubbers and leaders can also bring an item to club that is meaningful and share during the show and tell time in Large Group Time.

Operation Shoebox Night /OCC Night—Sunday, November 17th

We take part in Operation Christmas Child each year. This service project is designed to be completed at home involving the kids and family. The focus of the night will be to help kids understand that they too can serve around the world and give a gift that will change lives. We encourage each clubber/family to pack a shoebox for a girl or boy and bring it to club on the due date. Parents are encouraged to send extra shoeboxes to club to help meet our goal for the year. The kids will enjoy shopping for the items, packing the boxes at time, wrapping the box(es)—(optional) and preparing the boxes for shipping along with a letter of encouragement. Don't forget, shoeboxes are due on Sunday, November 17th!

Christmas Celebration Night—Sunday, December 15th

This night the kids can dress up and wear multi-colored dress wear, lights, ugly sweaters, etc. as we celebrate Christmas in singing songs, carols and celebrate the reason for the season. We will conclude the night with a special snack time.

Soup-er Bowl/Sports Night—Sunday, January 26th

Clubbers come to club dressed in their favorite sports outfit and or wear favorite team outfit/colors. We will play variety of sports such as: ball hockey, bowling game, soccer, basketball, football or sponge football (foam ball). Bring a can of soup for the food pantry. Items will be donated to Interfaith Works agency to feed homeless and families in the community.

Twins Night—Sunday, March 8th

Dress up like a brother, sister twin or dress up like a friend. The focus of the night will be to teach kids that we are all part of God's family (sisters and brothers) and help each other wherever we are.
